To better serve the scholarly community, a digital copy of your Undergraduate Research report can be made available via OxyScholar (http://scholar.oxy.edu/urc).

OxyScholar is our web-based, open access platform for digital scholarly work created at Occidental College by members of the Occidental community. It is a permanent archive. By placing your research in OxyScholar, all materials are searchable via Google Scholar and other search engines. Materials that are located in OxyScholar are freely accessible to the world; however, your copyright or Creative Commons License protects against unauthorized use of the content. Although you have certain rights and privileges with your copyright or Creative Commons License, there are also responsibilities. Please review the following statements and identify that you have read them by signing below. Some departments may choose to restrict access to the work of their Undergraduate Research Center students because of continuing research. In such cases the research will not be posted in OxyScholar, and content will only be accessible by individuals based upon departmental guidelines.

Due to the nature of undergraduate research, you may elect whether your research is included in OxyScholar:

Signed permission form (see next page) REQUIRED, including faculty mentor signature:

- full research report

The CDLR thanks Macalester College for permission to use the DigitalCommons@Macalester College Policies and Procedures as the basis for this document.

Last CDLR Revision: 8/31/11
I have read the above statement and agree to make my Undergraduate Research Center-sponsored work available to the Occidental College community and to the larger scholarly community in our OxyScholar digital archive or its successor technology.
